

Dr Tania Rogers

MBBS BA FAFOEM(RACP) FRACGP MScTech(Occupational Medicine)

Position:

Occupational Physician

Qualifications:

- Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery MB BS (Syd)
- Fellow of the Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine of The Royal Australasian College of Physicians (FAFOEM RACP)
- Masters of Science and Technology – Occupational Medicine (UNSW)
- WorkCover Authorised Medical Practitioner
- WorkCover Accredited Injury Management Consultant (IMC)
- WorkCover NSW Trained Assessor of Permanent Impairment
- Independent Medical Examiner
- NSW Motor Accidents Authority Assessor

Affiliations:

- Registered with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
- Member of the Australian and New Zealand Society of Occupational Medicine (ANZSOM)

Skills/Experience:

Over 15 years experience in all areas of occupational medicine; including injury management consultations, medico-legal examinations, policy writing, health surveillance and toxicology, pre-placement assessments, OHS risk assessments and worksite assessments, travel health, onsite consultancy, treatment of injured employees and workplace health promotion.

Industry Experience:

- Police
- Fire
- Postal Services
- Water
- Defence
- Maritime
- Construction
- Manufacturing
- Transport
- Emergency Services
- Public Service / Clerical
- Education
- Waste Management
- Hospitality
- Municipal Council

Professional Interests:

- Impairment Assessment
- Fitness for work in safety critical industries
- Management of long term injured workers
- Evidence based medicine