

Dr Prasad Abeydeera

MB BS

Position:

Occupational Medical Practitioner

Qualifications:

- Bachelor of Medicine, Bachelor of Surgery (MB BS)
- Occupational Medical Practitioner
- Medical Review Officer
- Graduate Diploma in Occupational and Environmental Health (Monash University)
- Designated Aviation Medical Examiner (DAME) accredited with the Civil Aviation Safety Authority

(CASA)

Affiliations:

- Registered with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA)
- Trainee of the Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine (AFOEM)

Skills/Experience:

- Dr. Abeydeera spent many years in emergency medicine before moving to occupational medicine. After completing his degree in Sri Lanka, Dr. Abeydeera completed his internship in Wales, UK.
- Dr. Abeydeera has experience as a 'fly in - fly out' medical practitioner and was involved in health promotion and work place injury prevention in the QLD mining industry.

Industry Experience:

- Mining

Professional Interests:

- Dr Abeydeera is currently studying a Post Graduate Diploma in Occupational and Environmental Health, Monash University, VIC.
- Dr Abeydeera is also working towards becoming an Occupational Physician and a Fellow of the Occupational and Environmental Medicine (AFOEM), which is a faculty of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP).