

Dr Kim Hobbs

MBBS MPH FAFPHM FAFOEM (RACP) CIME

Position:

Consultant Physician in Occupational and Environmental Medicine

Qualifications:

- MBBS - Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery, University of Sydney (1977)
- MPH - Master of Public Health, University of Sydney (1985)
- FAFOM – Fellow Australian College of Occupational Medicine (1984)
- FAFOEM - Fellow Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine, RACP (1992)
- FAFPHM - Fellow Australasian Faculty of Public Health Medicine, RACP (1991)
- Registered Medical Practitioner AHPRA, General and Specialist Registration (1977)

Affiliations:

- Fellow Australian College of Occupational Medicine (1984)
- Fellow Australasian Faculty of Occupational and Environmental Medicine, RACP (1992)
- Fellow Australasian Faculty of Public Health Medicine, RACP (1991)
- Registered Medical Practitioner AHPRA, General and Specialist Registration. (1977)
- Certified Independent Medical Examiner, American Board Independent Medical Examiners (ABIME) (2014)

Skills/Experience:

- Experience in Fitness for Work Assessments (work related and non-work related medical conditions); all aspects of Injury Management and rehabilitation in the workplace (private and public sectors);
- Pre-employment Assessments
- Musculoskeletal Medicine
- Experience in the development and implementation of occupational health surveillance programs and health promotion programs
- Experience in risk communication with employers and employees
- Experience in safety critical medical and health programs of Heavy Vehicle Drivers, pilots and potentially chemically exposed workers
- Developed health risk management programs for shift workers in offshore operations
- Workplace assessments

Industry Experience:

- Large Technology Manufacturing Operations
- Local and International Customer ID Service Operations
- Local and International Call and Data Centre Operations
- Manufacturing
- Transport
- Travel and Overseas Assignee Health Matters
- Work place risk assessments
- Health Surveillance Assessments

Professional Interests:

- Fitness for work in safety critical industries
- Early Workplace Intervention
- Development of clinical assessment protocols
- Evidence based medicine