

Eric Mete

B.App Sc (Phys)

Position:

WorkCover Physiotherapist

Eric graduated from the University of Sydney and has been a valuable member of the IMMEX team since 2014. Eric is passionate about focussing on early return to work by means of effective rehabilitation of injured workers, work hardening programs, workplace education programs, orthopaedic plastering and splinting. Eric also provides pre-employment screening across all industries to assess functional capacity of potential candidates. Eric has continued his professional development by completing further courses in hand and wrist therapies and attending annual orthopaedic and sports medicine updates.
